

Redmayne-Bentley's Account Authorisation Form

Some clients wish for a partner, family member or a close friend to be able to give instructions on their behalf. We are quite happy to accept instructions on this basis, with your consent.

This form enables you, as our client, to agree to be bound by instructions given in your name by another, named individual. This authority covers the placing of instructions to buy or to sell securities on your behalf. Redmayne-Bentley will be authorised to supply the individual with the necessary information to do this. This authorisation does not permit the authorised individual to withdraw assets or receive payments from the undersigned account(s). Payments can only be made to authorised bank account(s).

If you are happy with this, please complete the form and return it as soon as possible. You can, of course, cancel this authority at any time by writing to us to this effect.

To comply with anti-money laundering regulations, we are required to identify the individual being given authority and may check their details with Fraud Prevention agencies and may require evidence of their identity.

To grant permission to the named individual to act on your behalf, please complete the details below and then return to:

Redmayne-Bentley LLP, 9 Bond Court, Leeds LS1 2JZ.
